THIS Mission has been formed to make known :—

1.—The saving knowledge of the LORD and Saviour JESUS CHRIST to our own countrymen in India and the Colonies, and to resuscitate by Divine guidance any germs of Christian life, which may have been implanted by pastoral and parental counsel in far distant homes.

2.—To propagate in a “spirit.....of love and of a sound mind,” the doctrines of the Protestant Reformation, in the belief that such teaching is the best security under GOD, for the peace, happiness, and prosperity of our British fellow subjects.

3.—To guard the educational interests of the young, by giving such aid and advice to parents as shall contribute to the training of children in schools of good repute.

4.—To promote the Temperance Cause as well as that of purity, and also diffuse such attractive and wholesome literature as will not only counteract the Scepticism and infidelity which prevail, but act as an energising force upon benumbed and sleeping souls.

5.—To hold Religious Services wherever practicable among Europeans, so that by proclaiming the pure Gospel, our own compatriots in “the regions beyond” may be turned from darkness to light and from the power of Satan unto GOD.

What we have to do with is spiritual merchandise ; we have to send the blessed gospel to our countrymen, and through them to the heathen, and therefore in exchange for the coveted pearls of India's coral strand, be it ours to send the pearl of great price. In exchange for India's diamond and other mines, be it ours to send the imperishable treasures of gospel grace and salvation, until at length these climes known as the region of the sun, shall become the climes of a better sun, even the Sun of Righteousness, vivified by His quickening beams, and refulgent with the rays of His unclouded glory.

In order to place this Mission on a sound basis, £3,000 at least is required.

All contributions or donations will be thankfully received and promptly acknowledged by J. N. Foley, Missionary and General Secretary, at the Offices, 18 Paternoster Row, London, E.C.
